

University at Buffalo
The State University of New York
Division of Continuing and Professional Studies

Writing the Research Paper

Professional Publications, Theses, and Dissertations
For Graduate, Doctoral, and Postdoctoral Students
Advance your research writing during winter session
January 4th – January 7th

Writing the Research Paper

- Developing a plan
- Organizing a paper
- Selecting a topic
- Asking a significant question
- Establishing a claim, thesis, argument
- Finding useful sources
- Drafting a report
- Writing an introduction, body, and conclusion
- Integrating research
- Revising a first draft
- Editing a final copy
- Documenting sources

For additional information about our other writing courses, click the Writing Programs link on our website

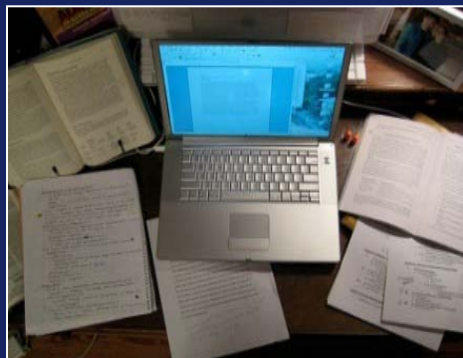

Course details

Two sessions: Jan. 4th – Jan. 7th

- 9:00 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.
- 1:00 p.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Location:

UB South Campus
Diefendorf Hall
Room 202

Improve your ability to write quality research papers

Registration:

www.mfc.buffalo.edu

Contact: Patricia Mull (Coordinator for Program Development)
Millard Fillmore College
Office of the Provost Division of Continuing and Professional Studies (716)829-3387
pamull@buffalo.edu